

14th March 2025

Dear Families

What a lot of poorly people there are! We haven't seen some of our children at all this week - we have missed them sorely. Everyone is determined to be well for camp - the Puffins that have been here have been practising great personal hygiene measures to try to avoid whatever is going around...

It is camp next week! We hope you have a 'fun' time packing. You honestly don't need too much - it's only three (action packed) days! Most importantly please be on time (7.45am) and don't forget your packed lunch. The bus will leave at 8am!

The Puffins might be excited about camp - but so are the Choughs! What will they get up to in the absence of the big ones?

We had a lot of musical fun this week. Puffins sang sweetly during the SongFest workshop. Choughs were trying to entice the dragon back into the garden with Chinese inspired music under the guidance of John Brolly.

Terracotta Army

We have been learning about the history of the terracotta army and, this week, had a go at sculpting our own soldiers. We had to be extra creative as the clay has not yet resurfaced after the move, so we used playdough instead. We used different tools to create texture and expressions on the faces of our soldiers. We didn't quite have time to make 10,000 but here's our fearsome fifteen!

We will protect the emperor!

The Reading Shed! (or MWOS)

MWOS (Mini World Of Stories) is the school's little library staffed by different children each day and open to everyone at break - from the teeniest Chough to the ginormous-est Puffin. It has been running since 2022 when it was named at assembly and the first ever librarians were chosen. Since then loads of new people have joined the team and they all love it!

"I really like the Reading Shed because it's very cosy and so nice on a cold day!" F.N

"It's really quiet!" R.N

"It's really nice and calm and it's like a little den!" L-B.S

"It's my happy place where I can read in silence." C.H

We are all going to be part of the process of choosing the new books for school from the Library Van and we will be starting some research, quizzes and questions to try and find what people want!
