Dear Families

I just wanted to let you know we have now had confirmation that Mr Francis remains on sick leave and will not be back before the Easter break.

I am pleased to be able to confirm that Jodie Flynn will continue in her role as Head support, while Miss Finch and Miss Ferguson continue with their leadership roles alongside their class teaching commitment. Paul Hooper also continues to be part of the St Levan team.

We have a busy and exciting lead up to the end to the term planned for your children with the usual array of activities.

Many thanks for your continued support

Sharon Brolly
